CHEERS, AND THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

One family has been so entrenched in the bayside community for more than five decades, it's hard to imagine the area without them. So it's with more than a tinge of sadness that we say goodbye to the McDonald family, as they hand over the lease of The Manly Hotel to its new custodians, Endeavour Group.

A chapter in Manly's history is about to close as Sandy, Jenny, and Doug McDonald hand over the lease to The Manly Hotel's new licensees after 51 years.

This is more than just a bricks and mortar pub; it's an iconic institution where milestone memories have been made, careers forged and friendships endured.

"Working at The Manly, where everybody knows Sandy, Jenny and Doug, is like being a part of an even bigger family than the McDonald clan," said Janet Moore, niece to Jenny, Sandy and Doug McDonald. "A strong, community-minded spirit is in everything we do and it has been a privilege to get to know the locals who feel so at home at The Manly."

Janet recalls many happy memories of the extended family celebrations that have taken place at the pub over the last 51 years.

"The first big one would have been Doug's 21st back in 1970, and 49 years later it was time to celebrate Doug's 70th. How time flies!"

Endeavour will take the reins on October 1, which marks the start of the group's new 50-year lease.

And while it's sad to see the McDonald family go, the community can look forward to many more celebrations and good cheer under the hospitality of The Manly Hotel's new custodians.

REMEMBER WHEN A HORSE WALKED INTO THE MANLY HOTEL?

FROM THE MANLY HOTEL

When the hotel's license transferred into their names in 1980, the McDonald siblings set about turning The Manly Hotel into a venue that was ahead of market trends at the time.

You want a liquor barn? In 1982, you got it! How about a beer garden and two completely refurbished bars? In 1986, consider it done!

Some West Indian Termites got swept up in the renovation fever in 1989. Unfortunately, their vision wasn't shared with the McDonalds, and they were sent off to the big termite mound in the sky. But termites weren't the only animal invaders that needed to be dealt with during this decade.

A horse walked into a bar – no, really! A horse walked into OUR bar! After an Expo 88 celebration a gentleman thought that the Clipper Gaming Lounge might be an ideal place to water his real, live horse. After ripping off the ice machine door and sending people running in its wake, it was decided that horses weren't ideal patrons. Who would have thought a "No Horses In Bar" sign would be required? The sign is still fixed above the Clipper Gaming Lounge door to this day, just in case.

Sandy McDonald described his role in the industry to the Wynnum Redlands Herald in 1984: "I've got a sort of wandering brief which covers everything... generally trying to encourage social activity. That's really what hotels are all about."

THE BONNER UPDATE

ROSS VASTA MP FEDERAL MEMBER FOR BONNER

BONNER WINTER APPEAL 2021-THANK YOU

My Bonner Winter Appeal has now wrapped up for 2021! I want to express my sincere thanks to everyone who donated and helped to spread the love this winter.

I am incredibly humbled to see how members of the community and local businesses have come together to make a difference. Donations were dropped by my office multiple times per day, even after the appeal had finished up!

These have now been given to local community organisations including Wynnum Community Place, Rosie's and St Pete's Pantry. All of whom couldn't be more grateful.

St Pete's Pantry Coordinator Marilyn Jacob said, "The donations meant we didn't have to disappoint any locals in need. We were able to give generously because of the communities generosity."

MANLY WEST STATE SCHOOL VISIT PARLIAMENT HOUSE

I recently had some very special visitors at Parliament House when I welcomed year 6 students from Manly West State School (who might I just add, braved the chilly Canberra weather!).

It was great to catch up with the students, show them around and answer their many questions about how Parliament works and what I get up to during sitting weeks.

After our catch up, I noticed they came to get a sneak peak of the gallery where I was sat in the chair and I gave them a wave. I always love seeing our students in Canberra and teaching them about the role our Government plays.

HAPPY NEW FINANCIAL YEAR!

About to lodge your tax return? Here's what you need to know! This new financial year, the Morrison Government is securing our national recovery and providing a helping hand with key measures to lower taxes and create jobs.

We are putting more money back in the pockets of low to middle income earners with tax cuts. There's also more support for Bonner's first home buyers and single parents with 30,000 additional places under the Family Home Guarantee.

Our local businesses are benefitting from lower tax rates and the extension of the instant asset write off. These measures will provide tax relief to millions of hard-working Australians.

MISS MAGGIE OF MANLY

ALL ABOUT EAR INFECTIONS IN DOGS

BY DR NICKY THOMAS, WYNNUM MANLY VETERINARY HOSPITAL

Ear infections are a very common skin disease in many dogs (and less commonly in cats) and often the cause of repeated vet visits.

There are a couple of factors which make our pets more prone to ear infections. The first of these is the shape of the ear canal. Unlike the human ear canal which goes straight in, a dog's ear canal has both vertical and horizontal canals. This forms a "j" shape and allows ear wax, skin oils and other debris to accumulate deep in the canal. Bacteria and yeast which live in the normal ear canal feed on this material and multiply, leading to clinical signs of ear infection.

The second factor which increases the likelihood of ear infection is anything which leads to an increase in the amount of wax present. Allergic skin disease is a very common cause of ear infections. Other causes include parasites (e.g. ear mites), foreign bodies lodging in the ear canal (e.g. grass seeds), a narrow ear canal (often seen in breeds such as shar peis) or excess hair growth in the ear canal (typical in breeds such as poodles and schnauzers).

Signs of ear infection include a discharge or odour from the ear, head shaking or scratching of the ears or pain on handling around the head.

Commonly yeast infections will present with a "vegemite" type wax while bacterial infections may result in pus or bleeding from the ear.

The treatment of ear infections involves examination of the ear canal to check for the presence of mites or foreign bodies; microscopic examination of the discharge to look for yeast or bacteria; cleaning of the excess wax and debris from the ear canal and medicated drops to treat underlying infections. With the increasing frequency of allergic skin disease there is often the need for allergy medications to help reduce itching and inflammation in the ear canals to reduce the risk of infection developing.

Ongoing prevention of ear infections may involve plucking excess fur from the canals and regular flushing with a pet-specific ear cleaner to help remove wax.

If your pet suffers with ear infections it is important to regularly check their ears and ensure they are kept clean and dry.

HELPING A LITTLE LOCAL LEGEND: RICHIE WALSH

BY BRENT STORY

While the last year has been a challenge for many in our community, Richie Walsh has had it tougher than most. Richie is a nine-year-old boy within our local community who has been fighting an extremely rare cancer since March 2020.

Richie has undergone multiple rounds of chemotherapy and radiation therapy. Unfortunately, the treatment has been unable to cure Richie – his doctors are now trialling further chemotherapy treatments to keep the cancer at bay.

But there is hope for Richie – his family now has one of the top cancer doctors in the world onboard. Dr Leo is an oncologist who specialises in treating Rhabdomyosarcoma from a clinic in Los Angeles, United States. His family needs help to raise funds for Richie to make this life saving trip.

My business has been helping to raise funds – we believe that as a community we have the power to help Richie access the treatment he needs.

If you can help Richie then please visit his GoFundMe page titled 'Richie needs vital treatment for Rhabdomyosarcoma' organised by Lauren Haigh. You can learn more about Richie's courageous journey by visiting his blog at <https://littleslegends.com>.

COMMUNITY UPDATE

JOAN PEASE'S COMMUNITY UPDATE, STATE MEMBER FOR LYTTON

BAYSIDE BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

I was delighted to award Damien Lugg and The Community Leader the Bayside Business of the Month for July. Damien and Kirsten have recently celebrated The Community Leader's 1st anniversary. What a fabulous year it's been - connecting our community. Thanks for your efforts and congratulations on Bayside Business of the Month.

BOOMERANG BAG SALES TO BENEFIT LOCAL GROUPS

Wynnum Manly Boomerang Bags is a wonderful community enterprise which began as a group of local ecowarriors sewing cloth bags in an endeavour to reduce landfill. Baysiders have been madly purchasing their beautifully made bags from Clara Street Day and Night Pharmacy. Sales have been so successful, the group has surplus funds, which they are proudly giving back to the community in the form of 3x $500 grants. The lucky recipients include Bayside BMX, who received a grant to complete some minor landscaping around their clubhouse, Tingalpa State School who will set up a compost and worm farm system at their school, and Bayside Creeks Catchment Group who will use the money to help with administration and marketing costs. Congratulations Wynnum Manly Boomerang Bags for your success and dedication to our environment and our community. Baysiders, keep showing your support and keep buying those bags!

FAREWELL MRS HADFIELD

At the end of last term, Wynnum State School bid farewell to their inaugural Principal, the incredible Mrs Glenyce Hadfield. Glenyce is an amazing educator who has contributed so much to our community and touched the lives of countless children during her many decades in education.

Glenyce led the amalgamation of our local schools during the State Schools of Tomorrow Project, a daunting and complex task involving a $150m state government investment. Glenyce rose to the challenge of creating and enacting a vision for Wynnum State School and ensured the students and families of Wynnum gained the excellent school they deserved.

Since the doors opened to students in 2012, Glenyce has led Wynnum State School to enjoy many successes, including gaining accreditation as an internationally recognised 'Habits of Mind' School and achieving the status of an 'Australasian Schools Accreditation Agency' school, in acknowledgment of school performance. In 2001, Glenyce received an Australia Day medal for her service to education.

Glenyce also served as Principal of Wynnum North State School during the early 2000's, and together with her husband Peter, also an educator, has worked in many school communities across the state including Wondai, Mannuam Creek, Monto, Moonford, Bluff, Blackwater, Ipswich, Dinmore, Palm Island and Wellington Point.

Thank you Glenyce for the wonderful, lasting legacy you've created in the Bayside and I hope your retirement is the fabulous new adventure you deserve.

SPORTS INFRASTRUCTURE FUNDING

We know local sporting clubs have been doing it tough during the pandemic, and that's why the Palaszczuk Government has created the new $9m Active Gameday Projects fund as part of our Covid-19 Economic Recovery Plan. Funding of up to $150,000 will be available for eligible sport and recreation projects where the club is able chip in 20 per cent of their project's cost.

Examples of eligible projects include developing or upgrading playing surfaces and installing or upgrading irrigation and field lighting. The Active Gameday Projects fund will help our local clubs get back on their feet, freshen up their facilities for existing members, and encourage new sign ups. Applications open in September. Further information is available at: <https://www.dtis.qld.gov.au/sport/funding-programs>

None have been as utterly professional AND truly hospitable, and welcoming as Gail Gobey of Sash and Gable. There is a real sense of duty of care and knowledge to go with it. Moreover, my wife has been in the industry and knows the difference and is generally reserved about expectations. Even she was highly impressed. Totally outstanding and highly recommended!"

MANLY WAYS TO GET MOVING

MOVE INTO AUGUST WITH A RENEWED SENSE OF SELF.

It can be difficult to find the motivation to get moving during winter, but the scenic beauty of Manly Harbour and surrounding areas is just one of the many rewards waiting. There is something for every fitness level by the bayside. Why not find an accountability buddy and try one of these activities?

TAKE A WALK

Is a leisurely stroll more your style? Slip, slop, slap and strut your way to a great mood with one of many gentle bayside walking trails. Start at Wynnum Jetty and make your way up to Manly Harbour, a delightful walk at high tide or low tide, when crabs can be spotted scuttling along the mudflats. Or begin at Lota and take in the charming seaside village and spectacular views across to St Helena and King Islands.

FIND YOUR ZEN

Simply sitting by the ocean and practicing mindfulness is a great way to centre your mind, body and soul. Connect with your breath, journal, or practice light yoga in Little Bayside Park. Apothecary Botanica is just across the road and offers reiki healing, readings, crystals and more, so be sure to peek inside.

BRISBANE FESTIVAL COMES BACK TO WYNNUM

Great to have the Brisbane Festival back on the streets of Wynnum.

The Queensland Ballet will be hosting 8 workshops for seniors at the Wynnum RSL on Mondays (2 per day) 16, 23 and 30 August and 7 September.

In addition, Queensland Ballet will be performing at the Wynnum Esplanade, Saturday 11 September from 3.30pm to 6pm.

From 2 – 25 September there will be more Street Serenade concerts and I will promote once the performances once they are published. Wynnum hosted a number of events last year, so let's hope to see more acts in 2021 in our suburbs.

BAYSIDE BRASS celebrated 50 years of music at the Bandstand in George Clayton Park on the weekend, 17 July 2021.

A brief on the history from the Wynnum Manly & District History Society:-

A bandstand standing on Manly foreshore, near the entrance to the Baths was built about 1933. The building became unsafe and was demolished on 28 August 1963, with the promise of a replacement.

The replacement bandstand was constructed in George Clayton Park in 1970, 7 years later. $5000 was contributed towards the building by the Wynnum Manly Citizen's Band.

Great to see the band still playing today and the bandstand used on a regular basis.

CONGRATULATIONS to Chocolate Elements who hosted their opening on 20th July. This new hand crafted chocolate shop has opened in Edith Street to the delight of chocolate lovers across the district. www.chocolateelements.com.au

Chocolate Elements is working in collaboration with 3 Elements Coffee (a veteran owned and run social enterprise that supports veteran and community initiatives through the love of coffee) and Lee Child, (award-winning #1 bestselling author of the Jack Reacher series), brings you an espresso coffee: 'Worth Dying For' which is sold through the shop.

This collaboration supports PTSD Resurrected, a registered charity bringing hope, healing and purpose to our veteran and first responder community, as a % of all coffee sales goes into veteran initiative programs.

It is a Care Trade Coffee™ which uses up to 50% less gas-energy compared to conventional roasting systems.

I also liked their 100% 60 days' fully biodegradable and compostable cups.

And when in Edith Street, new kids on the block for men's wear is Sonny Jim. This new men's shop brings a great range of clothes and I especially liked their hat range. Their accessories are of high quality. Well done!

Good to see retail is opening up its doors and expanding in Wynnum CBD.

WHY DANCE IS A FANTASTIC ACTIVITY FOR ADULTS

FROM BAYSIDE DANCE

Dance classes are super popular with kids and teens, but there are so many great benefits for adults to dance as well! If you're looking for a way to keep fit and reconnect with your sense of joy, joining a dance class could be just what you need to kickstart your journey.

"As a business owner and mother of three, I find it hard to fit in cardio sessions (especially because I don't enjoy running)," explained local adult dancer Kathryn Steinhardt.

"But adult dance sessions later in the evening give me the cardio in an enjoyable way that I can fit into my schedule. There's no pressure to be perfect; just move, get your heart rate up and time flies by."

Here are a few reasons why dance classes are great for adults.

FEEL-GOOD FITNESS

Dance is a great alternative or addition to the gym. Moving to the beat gives you a fantastic feeling of strength, joy and fun!

VARIETY OF MOVEMENT

If you want to work every muscle in your body, dance is a brilliant option. The variety of movement will challenge your body in new ways.

YOU'RE NOT AIMING FOR THE STARS

As an adult dancer, there's no pressure to perform, pass an exam, or dream of becoming a Rockette. You can turn up to class and just enjoy your time.

IT'S GOOD FOR YOUR BRAIN

Dancers are constantly changing the wiring in their brains by learning new steps and choreography. According to researchers in Brazil, dancing strengthens the activity between both cerebral hemispheres.

IT'S EMPOWERING

Whether fast and furious or delicate and controlled, dance moves give the dancer a real sense of strength and 'owning it' on the dance floor!

STRESS LESS

The opportunity to express yourself physically is also a great outlet to blow off steam and rebalance emotions.

Bayside Dance offers a range of adult dance classes, including Barre, Zumba, Ballet and Tap. Many classes cater for beginners as well. There's no need to wear a leotard – just wear comfortable gym-style clothes. For more information and to view our timetable, visit <https://www.baysidedance.com.au/classes/adults/>.

BY DAVID HUGGONSON

Archie Newfong was born 15 October 1910. He was the descendant of the Ngugi people of the Moreton Bay area and a Chinese fisherman. Under a 1902 amendment to Queensland's Protection of Aboriginals and Restriction of the Sale of Opium Act of 1897, Aboriginal wages were paid into trust accounts at the Government Saving Bank. Withdrawals from these trust accounts could only be made with the written approval of the local protector of Aboriginals or the Chief Protector. The local police sergeants or senior constables were deemed local protectors of Aboriginals in the area covered by their police station.

After considerable pressure from the Australian Workers' Union, The Chief Protector gazetted regulations on 6 June 1919, which assessed Aboriginal wage values at two-thirds of rates of white workers. This did not apply to Aboriginals living on government reserves or missions, who received housing and rations in return for their labour maintaining the settlements at the direction of the managers.

Mainstream Aboriginal workers were covered by the Workers Compensation Act of 1910, but all compensation payments were paid into trust accounts controlled by agents of the Chief Protectors Office. Aboriginals were not entitled to the Commonwealth Old Age and Invalid Pensions, as were their fellow British Subjects of European origin. They received federal pensions in 1909 after the Commonwealth Parliament passed the legislation in 1908.

Archie Newfong, like many Aboriginals living on North Stradbroke Island, was employed at the Dunwich Benevolent Asylum, which was established in 1865 to provide shelter and care for the poor and needy of Queensland. In 1920 the Aboriginal workers of the institution began a campaign for cash wages, not rations but for equal pay under the awards applying to white employees.

Archie Newfong was a superb sportsman playing cricket and football. He was also a boxer. One year he won the Amity Cup on his horse, "Pet". The Amity Cup was a horse race along the beach at Dunwich held each year. In 1941 Archie became the heavyweight boxing champion of Queensland.

When Australia entered World War Two in defence of the British Empire, the Military Board on 6 May 1939 issued a memo declaring, "the enlistment of aliens or British subjects of non-European origin or descent was neither necessary nor desirable". However, once Japan entered the war this policy was quickly dropped. The Courier-Mail of 11 July 1941 ran a story on the enlistment of Archie Newfong and his Dunwich mate G F Enoch.

Aboriginals who served in Australian military forces enjoyed the same pay and conditions as white servicemen. For many it was the first time they had received equal pay.

After the war Archie became active in the Incapacitated Servicemen and Women Association serving as welfare officer helping returned diggers put their lives back together. He went on to become State President for seven years from 1977.

Archie and son John were active campaigners during the 1967 referendum, which gave power to the Commonwealth Government to legislate on Aboriginal matters. John went on to become a journalist for a major newspaper and was heavily involved in the 1972 tent embassy in Canberra.

In 1988 Archie Newfong was appalled to hear of the motion moved at the RSL's national congress by the Victorian president, Mr Bruce Ruxton. The motion called for Aboriginals to be race-tested before being allowed to claim government benefits. The motion was widely condemned and Archie campaigned in the Courier Mail on 29 September to have the motion rescinded.

The Courier Mail reported on 22 April 1991, that 80-year-old Archie Newfong had unveiled Australia's first Aboriginal war memorial in the Jebbribillum Borta Park at Burleigh Heads.

Throughout their lives Archie and his wife Edna campaigned for the betterment of Aboriginal people. His wife was Edna Crouch, who came from a famous sporting family. She had represented Australia in the national women's cricket team that played England in 1935. Their exemplary lives deserve to be better known.

LOCAL POETRY
SHARING

BY GEOFF SMILEY

Only recently we came to this place.
Forebears found a land occupied.
We were new
in a country to be endured.
We were people
too poor and changed to return.
Marginals, English Oaks
transplanted to a land of Banksias.

But over time,
we became part of this continent;
Australians, accepting the inevitable,
accepting the unpredictable.
Wars fought for a past identity,
while dialect and art evolved.

Self-protecting "white Australia," till the reality of location prevailed.

Everyone needs somewhere to live.
We have a collective memory,
of newness in this place.
And of previous peoples with whom we shared this land.

Surely fellow arrivals could be included with grace.
Let us not hold too tightly, to our taken home.

The Australian community is confused by the competing issues of having a coherent society and being fair by including new arrivals. The base fear of xenophobia is likely to outweigh generosity. But let us remember our own history in this wonderful country.

STAR-STUDDED ACTS WILL ROCK THE BAY IN OCTOBER

FROM THE WYNNUM FRINGE

After a mega-successful inaugural outing last year, Wynnum Fringe 2021 is back – bigger and bolder than before – with a star-studded line up of local, national and international acts across six days from 16 to 21 November.

But first...Brisbane's only annual fringe festival will also debut Rock the Bay – a one-day outdoor concert on Saturday 9 October 2021 on the front hill of Iona College, Lindum – as a musical precursor to the festival event.

In the grand tradition of Australian music festivals, Rock the Bay boasts a must-see line up of beloved homegrown icons alongside up-and-coming local talent, hosted by Wynnum Fringe Founder Tom Oliver and Johnny Balbuziente (Married at First Sight).

Headlined by Aussie music legend Daryl Braithwaite, concert-goers will be able to groove along to Australian rock royalty such as soulful singer Kate Ceberano, '90s pop duo Bachelor Girl and singer-songwriter Sarah MacLeod of The Superjesus and solo fame.

Northern Territory's Wildfire Manwurrk will take to the stage for the first time outside Arnhem Land with the hard-rocking family band performing in their native languages of Kune, Dalabon and Rembarrnga.

Rounding out the local line up is Brisbane-based singer-songwriters Luke Kennedy and Mark Sholtez and folk-pop duo Women in Docs plus the electronic pop stylings of Ella Fence and reggae-tinged vibes of Lucid Safari.

Wynnum-based producer, performing artist, actor and singer Tom Oliver said he is thrilled to bring such a high calibre of Australian musical talent to the Bay.

"Having performed at outdoor concerts such as A Day on the Green and been a punter at many outdoor gigs, I love the vibe of music festivals and wanted to bring that to my hometown, Wynnum," Mr Oliver said.

Photo: Supplied.

The musical momentum will carry through to the second annual Wynnum Fringe, which will up the ante to build on the runaway success of last year's festival, which staged more than 50 events with 150 artists performing for an in-person and online global audience of 45,000 within a COVID-safe environment across three days.

Rock the Bay is on Saturday 9 October 2021 on the front hill at Iona College, Lindum. Wynnum Fringe 2021 is on from Tuesday 16 November to Sunday 21 November 2021 at various venues. For pre-sale tickets and to view the full program, visit www.wynnumfringe.com

BAYSIDE WOODIES CONTINUE TO PUZZLE LOCAL KIDS

BY CHRIS YOUNG

Members of the Bayside Woodturners and Woodcrafters Club (BWWC) have been busy making jigsaw puzzles for the last few weeks and distributing them to local early childhood learning centres.

The scrollsaw group have been cutting out a range of jigsaw puzzles for weeks now. A scrollsaw is a machine that can cut very fine lines, ideal for making jigsaws. Under the guidance of Rod Goody the group have cut out and sanded approximately 50 puzzles and have boxed them up ready to present to early learning centres and kindergartens in the Wynnum area. So far four centres have gladly accepted a box of puzzles.

Each puzzle has been bagged and each piece labelled so that they don't get mixed up. A picture is included in each bag to assist with assembly.

Early reports suggest that the puzzles have been well received by the children, and they are looking forward to seeing what other wooden toys the club can make in the future.

MAJESTIC CINEMAS HELP SHARE THE DIGNITY

This August Majestic Cinemas Wynnum will be asking patrons and the wider community to donate period products and sanitary items for the SHARE THE DIGNITY Donation Drive.

Since 2015 the Brisbane based charity has been able to donate 3 million period products to those in need, from people experiencing homelessness, fleeing domestic violence, and those living in crisis.

The donation box is located in the downstairs cinema foyer and is accessible all hours that the cinema is operating.

Assistant Manager Brie Wright feels passionate about this cause.

"As a woman I cannot imagine the feeling of not being able to afford or access such products on a monthly basis," said Brie. "Everyone who requires these products must have access. I'm just grateful we can assist in some way."

Majestic Cinemas Wynnum is located at 82 Berrima St Wynnum, opposite Waterloo Bay Hotel.

Share the Dignity believes everyone experiencing period poverty deserves the right to their dignity.

You can find out more information about Share the Dignity via www.sharethedignity.org.au.

SEAGULLS CONTINUE PARTNERSHIP WITH DEADLY CHOICES

FROM THE BMD WYNNUM MANLY SEAGULLS

The BMD Wynnum Manly Seagulls are proud to extend their long-standing partnership with Deadly Choices. As an initiative of the Institute for Urban Indigenous Health, Deadly Choices focuses on improving access to primary health care for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Through the partnership, the Seagulls hosted two Indigenous Recognition games, in Redlands and Maryborough, as part of the Intrust Super Cup season. In back-to-back games this July, the Gulls took on the Northern Pride at Pinklands Sporting Complex, then faced the PNG Hunters for the second time this season at Eskdale Park.

Indigenous Recognition match days incorporate a variety of coaching clinics and junior games, as well as the chance to meet rugby league icons and Deadly Choices ambassadors. The club played in a unique Indigenous jersey for each match to represent the local Indigenous culture, with the designs revealed in the lead up to the games.

The relationship between the Seagulls and Deadly Choices has a proud history, with previous games held on North Stradbroke Island in an effort to bring elite rugby league to passionate local fans. The partnership also allows Deadly Choices and their affiliated health clinics to promote healthy choices at the game and improve long-term health outcomes for the community.

THE SECRET TO PERFECT, HOME-MADE FISH AND CHIPS

BY SPERO KARTANOS

Local fisherman Spero Kartanos knows his fish, and how to cook them! Here he shares a few insider tips for perfect fish and chips.

We all have our favourite fish and chip shop to have a feed along our beautiful waterfront, but I think nothing beats fresh-caught, home-cooked seafood. Fresh whiting, mackerel, snapper, garfish, mullet, prawns, squid, or even some bought Tassie scallops with the roe on that you cook at home are easy and quick to cook.

I only use light olive oil for cooking – I know people carry on about the heat range, but I have been using it all my life, as did my Mum and Dad before me.

I always use the same old pan, which is now black from all the years of being used.

I cook fish in 3 to 4cm of light olive oil (depending on the thickness of the fish I am cooking) and get it to a temperature that sizzles when you throw a chip in – that means it's hot enough to cook your fish.

I used to make my own batter with water or beer, but I found the beer held too much oil for my liking and now I only use Japanese tempura batter, with a teaspoon of salt. Just add freezing cold water to the tempura batter to make it thin or thick (I like it thin). To cook perfectly, the trick is to have the pan hot and the tempura icy cold and don't overcrowd the pan. The taste is fantastic!

When it comes to chips, I do like home-cut chips from fresh potatoes, but I have to say for convenience sake, frozen thick/thin are pretty good. Just add salt and malt vinegar with a pickled onion (in brown vinegar, I am old-school). To make a really great meal, add some aioli and home-made chilli jam.

COMMUNITY PROFILE: NATIONAL MALAYA & BORNEO VETERANS

BY ALLEN EDWARDS

The National Malaya & Borneo Veterans Association of Australia was officially established in Australia in 1995 and is a self-funded, non-profit association run by unpaid volunteers.

The association is open to anyone who has served in Malaya, Borneo, Singapore and Brunei at any time, along with their spouse and family members. We are an all Services association with members from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Police, Planters, Teachers, and overseas military members.

We meet on the 4th Tuesday of each month at 11am at the Wynnum RSL for a short meeting to allow the members catch up on what has been happening, then we have a social luncheon downstairs.

On August 31 we will be joining the members of S.E.A.K at Southport to remember the end of the confrontation between Indonesia and Malaya. This occurred in 1966 and is recognised as a special day for our members.

If you would like any further information, or would like to join the group, please phone president Allen Edwards on 3396 6705 or 0408 431 590.

LOCAL KNITTERS SHARE THE LOVE VIA BEANIE COLLECTIVE

The lovely ladies of the St Mary Mackillop Knitting Group have been busy putting their talents towards a great cause. The group is one of the many wonderful community organisations involved with Rosies' Beanie Collective initiative.

Ladies meet weekly to connect and knit beautiful pieces for Rosies to fundraise and distribute to patrons. These talented knitters hand-stitch every beanie, blanket, sock, and scarf with love, so that when a patron receives an item they know that someone out there cares for them and their wellbeing.

Sometimes a blanket isn't just a blanket. We couldn't do what we do without the generous support from people in our community like the ladies at St Mary Mackillop.

Name: Kelly McKenna.

Suburb: Wynnum.

Where do you work? I work at Bartons Motors.

What's your favourite local dine-in and take-away: For dine-in, it's Manly Boathouse, and for take-away, May's Thai at Wynnum.

Best local activity? Walking and enjoying the Wynnum Manly waterfront.

The last book you read? The Secret.

What's the last tv show or movie you watched? A UK series, Luther, Marcella and Line of Duty.

Is there anything you'd like to see happen in the local area? Make Edith Street a mall and add more clothing shop options.

Name: Karen Bradford.

Suburb: I live in Lota and work in Wynnum.

What's your business? A relaxed and blokey shop exclusively for fellas – Sonny Jim. It's a bit of an emporium. I've collected very interesting and high-quality products from Australian brands, including leather products and fabulous clothing, shoes, belts, hats and plenty of men's gifts.

Do you have any fun/interesting stories about your job?

I'm hearing from the local ladies that their fellas have not bought clothes or accessories since DBS closed its doors. Come on fellas, spruce up your wardrobes!

What's your favourite local dine-in and take-away? Shucks Bar in Manly is hands down my favourite. Belinda and her team give relaxed, attentive service, and the quality of food and wine pairing is fun and reliable. My partner, Klaus and I love hanging out at her bar, with a Prosecco, watching the end of the Manly Sunday marketeers packing up in the twilight.

Best local activity? Going sailing with RQYS on their Wednesday Afternoon Go Sailing Day (WAGS). You can put your inexperienced name down and go and get on a huge yacht and enjoy our beautiful bay.

The last book you read? To be honest I have struggled to concentrate on a book for the past few years. After I read Charles Dickens' Great Expectations in 2010 I haven't been able to connect properly with a book since. It was that good. Quite a surprise.

The last tv show or movie you watched? I loved the series Call My Agent. It's French, with subtitles, a bit of a cross between Friends and The Office. They put actual big name actors into hilarious situations. Sigourney's episode was my favourite. I watched all the series three times.

Is there anything you'd like to see happen in the local area? Yes! Lots! I've lived locally for 15 years, and I've been saying Wynnum is Brisbane's best kept secret. Let's encourage someone to start a really good continental delicatessen, with cured meats hanging, fromage, hand-made pasta, etc. I've joined the local cinema, and that's great, and I'd love to see more fantastic retailers move here. I also love the festivals that have appeared over the past few years. We are a vibrant community, we just need people to invest!

Is there a local business/community group/club you'd like to give a shout-out to? Yeah I'd like to shout out a huge hug to Robbie Porter who is attempting to improve the quality of the water in our bay by replenishing some areas with oyster reefs. Oysters were plundered over the decades from our bay and crushed to make cement. Robbie, with his loyal right-hand man, Will, drives around and collects oyster shells from local restaurants, cleans them in the sun for a year at a property he leases, then takes them out in his tinny and tips them overboard in strategic places in Moreton Bay. Robbie has full backing of marine biologists and local authorities to do this. He's awesome don't you think?

TIPS FOR TACKLING WINTER FISHING ON MORETON BAY

BY SPERO KARTANOS

It's Ekka time, which means westerlies and great fishing in the bay, especially as the wind drops and the days become glassy.

August is not only the start of the Ekka, it's also the time to start looking for the migrating whales heading south with their calves coming in for a rest inside Moreton Bay. September is a better time to spot them, but we have had them come in as south as Peel Island over the years. The trouble is it's hard to go fishing when you see these majestic mammals with their babies in front of you.

Fishing for whiting this time of year is as good as it gets. There will be plenty from the Chain Banks into the small boat channel, all the way to the Rous, Amity Banks, Maroon Gutter, Sand Hills and Blue Hole, so there's no excuse not to get out and get a feed.

School mackerel are better at the end of the month, which is normally the time all the 35 to 45cm fish are in their thousands. I remove the barb on the spoons as it is easier to release all the babies – there are big fish mixed in so it's a matter of finding them between all the small ones.

Cuttlefish and arrow squid are in the deeper water on the eastern side of the mainland and the Bay Islands, just off the bottom. Last year we were getting them even in the weed banks where the whiting were.

Snapper and squire season re-starts mid-month, and if history repeats we are going to have plenty for the dinner plate.

So enjoy the bay, but please be careful with the westerlies in smaller boats this time of year. The bay looks glassy from shore, but it's incredibly rough and treacherous when heading back, especially around the mouth of the river with wind against tide.

For weekly and daily updates on fishing in Moreton Bay and whale sightings, you can see my latest info at fishingmonthly.com.au, Moreton Bay reports.

LOCAL AUTHOR LAUNCHES NEW BOOK: THE ADVOCATES

Local author Dr Robyn Gulliver's new book The Advocates: Women within the Australian Environment Movement traces the stories of nine women environmentalists around Australia. Over the past fifty years these women have held corporations to account, cleaned up toxic waste in their own backyards, and returned biodiversity to our forests.

One of these advocates is local Heather Barns, the co-founder of Bulimba Creek Catchment Coordinating Committee ('B4C'). In the book we learn of the challenges Heather has experienced while building this thriving catchment and landcare social enterprise.

Through her and her co-founders' efforts, B4C now supports multiple bushcare groups, undertakes education and school projects, organises hundreds of events and supports thousands of conservation volunteers right here in our local community.

Eight other women are featured in the book, two of whom have also spent decades advocating for Queensland's unique environment.

One of these is June Norman, who walked 1200 km alongside the Great Barrier Reef in her retirement and won a UN award for facing down the military and authorities at peace and anti-mining camps. Jan Nicol, born in West End, bought a 'Wombat Acre' as a teenager and now volunteers full time as a climate advocate in her retirement.

Author Robyn lives locally in Wynnum while co-author Jill L. Ferguson lives in California. Together they are excited to launch The Advocates with Melbourne University Press, and share the stories of these women's behind-the-scenes struggle to preserve and restore Australia's environment.

You can read these stories and learn more about the book at <https://www.mup.com.au/books/the-advocates-paperback-softback> or robynegulliver@gmail.com

IS YOUR DOG A CANINE ATHLETE OR WEEKEND WARRIOR?

BY AMBER STEWART, BF PET REHAB, WYNNUM

Is your dog an athlete or a weekend warrior?

Some dogs are very athletic and run and jump most days. These dogs, though fit, can still suffer from repetitive and stress related injuries the same as human athletes do.

Agility and working dogs can be particularly susceptible to joint injuries caused by the sudden stopping and turning at speed and pressure. Hind limb conditions such as arthritis of the hip, stifle and tarsus can be frequently found in sporting dogs. The most common hindlimb injury for dogs is cranial cruciate ligament (CCL) rupture.

Other dogs are the same as humans. If they aren't used to a lot of cardio exercise and then suddenly go to the park and run around with their mates or chase birds or balls at the beach or even in your back yard, they can put stress on their joints, injure their muscles and suffer other more serious injuries.

So whether your dog is an athlete or the WW type, regular massage sessions can really assist by keeping their muscles and joints supple and flexible, this is especially important when the weather is getting cooler or if your dog is getting older.

Where possible always try to let your dog warm up before they start running around or exercising at speed. This may mean keeping them on leash a bit longer with a brisk walk around the outside of the park or beach before you let them run with their friends. Or maybe park a bit further away from your destination and give yourself and your dog a chance to warm up and smell the roses on the way.

If your dog needs some assistance keeping in peak form or have any questions around how canine remedial massage could assist your dog feel free to reach out via my website www.bfpetrehab.com.au or Facebook page @bfpetrehab.

YOUNG ENTREPRENEUR OFFERS SERVICE WITH A SMILE

BY MATTHEW OWEN

Clay Lewis is something of a legend in the local area. This 19-year-old autistic entrepreneur based in Wynnum set up his own mobile wheelie bin cleaning business after he was unable to find a job.

Rather than feel sorry for himself Clay set up his own company cleaning bins in the Wynnum, Manly and surrounding suburbs.

Clay started his endeavours at 16-years-old whilst still at school and has created jobs for other teens along the way. After a Covid hit in 2020, Clay's business has gone from strength to strength in 2021.

You know when Clay comes to clean your bins it will be service with a smile along with a friendly chat – quite often about Formula 1 racing!

All the dogs visited along the way will get some extra attention but most importantly, your wheelie bins will be left sparkling and smelling as fresh as a daisy – even the maggot filled ones!

You can follow Clay's business journey and book a bin cleaning appointment on his Facebook page @ clayisachamp. Clay covers Wynnum, Manly, Capalaba, Tingalpa, Belmont and surrounding areas and is available for appointments Monday to Friday.

GREEN ISLAND'S FASCINATING HISTORY

BY JILL GREENHILL, WYNNUM MANLY HISTORICAL SOCIETY INC.

Just 5km off Wynnum Esplanade lies a low flat wooded coral cay known as Green Island, which is 2km in length and 1km wide.

A coral cay is formed by marine debris, floating plants and then sand, continually catching on a coral reef and slowly building up. These coral cay islands become large enough to support the growth of vegetation, especially mangroves. Mud, St Helena and King Islands formed in the same way. Today these Moreton Bay islands are fringed by coral and close to the southernmost limit of reef building.

Green Island has a northern beach descending to a swampy mangrove area at the southern end of the island.

On July 15 1799 the first European, Lieutenant Matthew Flinders, entered the northern end of a large bay in the Norfolk. He partially mapped and named the bay, "Moreton Bay". He saw low flat wooded islands and identified them by number. Green Island was No.3, Mud and St Helena being 1 and 2. Flinders did land on No.6 (Coochiemudlo Island). He also experienced the first clash with Aborigines at Point Skirmish on Bribie Island.

The steamer Somerset was anchored off the island in January 1879. In February 1879 Green Island was declared a lazaret and declared off limits. But its quarantine status was rescinded on 10th April 1879.

In 1915, the Wynnum and Manly Sailing Club applied, and gained permission, to clear the scrub at the sandy northern end of the island for the development of a Pleasure Resort. Volunteers did the clearing of the scrub and erected numerous facilities. The development was significant. There was a grandstand. There were barbecues, shelter sheds, bathing boxes, swings, see saws and picnic tables as well as a very long and substantial t-head jetty. A tank was erected for water supply.

The facilities were officially opened on the 9 April 1917 with many people in attendance. About 60 boats participated in the 16-footer race held to commemorate the opening, the race being won by Orchard (C Goodall).

The pilgrimage to the island became an annual event. In 1919 a large garden bed in the shape of the Club's Crest, was officially opened. Mr Henry Bone, a founding member and the Club's timekeeper and starter, was the designer and planted the bed. There were novelty races, a fishing competition and a tug-of-war.

The sailing club erected an Honour Board on the island to perpetuate the memory of those members who were involved in WWI.

However by 1921 the sailing club no longer had a controlling interest on the island and the Honour Board was removed to the double-storey band rotunda opposite No.2 jetty on Wynnum Esplanade. When this rotunda was demolished, the board disappeared but in the 1950s was retrieved by members of the Manly Lota RSL and today hangs in their hall, beautifully renovated by Robert Belfield in 2009.

Over the years, thousands of people enjoyed these facilities on Green Island, travelling over by boat from Wynnum and Manly for picnics. But eventually, time, vandalism and the weather took their toll and today no evidence of the Pleasure Resort remains.

In 1923 Richard William Marshall, aged 22 years, took his bride Eileen May, aged 19 years, to live on the northern end of Green Island. They lived in a log cabin, situated up from the beach, behind the jetty, made of trees cut down on the island. The log cabin had one large room and a smaller lean-to at the back. A well was dug and there was a spring.

Mr Marshall had previously worked for the railways on the Brisbane to Sydney line, but during the Depression years work was not available. Hence, he turned to fishing. He took his fish across to Wynnum Fish Market in his 18-ft sailing boat.

Queensland Cement and Lime Company (QCL) was established in 1914 in Darra, originally obtaining limestone from Gore on the Daring Downs. In the early 1930s, QCL built a wharf on the Brisbane River at Oxley for the landing of limestone (coral) from Mud Island. In 1956, official mining leases for the removal of coral from Mud, St Helena and Green Islands, and Wellington, Empire and Cleveland Points were granted by the State Government. These leases were safeguards to protect the ecology and natural environment.

In the early 1990s, there was a need to assess the effects from the mining. Mud Island was ruined. There was no regeneration of the coral due to the depth of the coral removal. Loose dead coral was washed up on the island forming a bund wall. Creeks were blocked. Mangroves were killed. The suggestion was made to place Green and Peel Islands into the Moreton Bay Marine Park to protect their extensive coral reefs.

A reprieve for Green Island came on July 23 1994. QCL deferred its application to dredge coral from the eastern seaward side of Green Island. Then in November 1995 QCL ceased all mining in Moreton Bay with the intention of relocating to Gladstone by 1998. (QCL have returned to Gore on the Darling Downs).

The renovated Wynnum and Manly Sailing Club Honour Board, originally unveiled on Green Island in c.1919, and now mounted on a wall in Manly Lota RSL.

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR LOCAL BUSINESSES TO STRENGTHEN AUSTRALIA'S SUPPLY CHAINS

Businesses across Bonner are encouraged to apply for the Supply Chain Resilience Initiative grant to help strengthen Australia's supply chain capabilities and access to critical products in times of crisis.

Applications have now opened for manufacturers— a key part of the Government's $1.5 billion Modern Manufacturing Strategy.

Matched grants of between $50,000 and $2 million are on offer for local businesses which can help address supply chain vulnerabilities across medicines and agricultural production chemicals – which were identified as sectors of focus in the Sovereign Manufacturing Capability Plan.

Federal Member for Bonner Ross Vasta MP said businesses across the electorate with project ideas are encouraged to apply for funding.

"The Morrison Government is working to not only strengthen our ability to access critical products for the health and wellbeing of all Australians, but also to grow our manufacturing sector and create new jobs," Mr Vasta.

"This initiative enables vital opportunities for businesses in Bonner to be part of important efforts when it comes to shoring up the nation's supply chains."

CONTRIBUTED BY WYNNUM AND MANLY DISTRICT MEALS ON WHEELS

For the past 54 years Meals on Wheels have prepared fresh meals, Monday to Friday, plus fresh cook-chill and frozen meals for weekends.

In May 2020, Wynnum and Manly District Meals on Wheels commenced operation from a modern kitchen capable of producing hundreds of hot, nutritious meals per day. In fact, last year the kitchen produced 33,000 meals!

The operation is driven by a wonderful group of volunteers, who are the backbone of the service, and deliver meals to those who are frail and aged, and younger people with disabilities.

"We do what we do best," said President Ken Edwards OAM.

"Our volunteers deliver much more than freshly prepared, nutritious home-style cooked meals. They provide a friendly smile, social interaction, and the opportunity to check on a person's well-being. Our volunteers may be the only people the recipients see."

The Meals on Wheels kitchen, located at 880 Manly Road Wakerley, has an accredited five-star food service rating from the Brisbane City Council. The building houses an auditorium which can seat up to 160 people, and a welcoming volunteer lounge and kitchen. There are also training facilities and a boardroom equipped for teleconferencing.

Environmentally friendly, the builder is equipped to harvest water (50,000 litres) and hosts a facility for charging electric vehicles. There's also 80 solar panels, soon to be backed up with nine batteries providing a total system size of 31.95 KWH.

IF THERE'S WINDS GALORE – STAY ASHORE!

CONTRIBUTED BY BRISBANE COAST GUARD

Two simple things can stop you becoming a statistic on the water.

Four people have died in the Bay in the last three months, and Coast Guard crews have rescued several other boaties in dire circumstances. Marine authorities are concerned that boaties are not taking simple marine safety steps that could prevent them from becoming a statistic.

“We’re all familiar with the ‘flooded – forget it’ message about driving across inundated roads,” skipper Allan Tennent said.

“Equally boaties need to be thinking about something similar for their trips to sea: ‘winds galore – stay ashore’. Check the weather, and if the conditions are going to be too rough, then stay home.

“If you get to the boat ramp and the swell has picked up, the smart decision is to turn around and go home, rather than press on.”

The second important step is to wear a lifejacket, no matter what you’re doing on the water. Kayakers and fishermen in small tinnies are particularly vulnerable, but all boaties should wear a lifejacket at all times. Between 1992 and 2018, 230 people drowned, or were presumed to have drowned, as the result of a marine incident in Queensland waters. Of these, only 12 were known to have been wearing a lifejacket.

“A lifejacket can save you, but only if you’re wearing it – in a sudden emergency on the water such as a capsize or swamping, you may not have time to grab your lifejacket,” Allan said.

“Modern lifejackets come in a range of styles including jackets and vests, and are more slim-fitting and comfortable than in the past and won’t restrict your movement.

“They’re a small investment, buy one, always put it on and it will save your life.”

ROTARY CLUB JOINT PRESIDENTS A FIRST FOR WYNNUM AND MANLY

Locals Jo-Anne O’Connor and David Groves were recently inducted as joint presidents to the Rotary Club of Wynnum and Manly – a club with a great track record of true spirit and determination dating back 68 years to the club’s beginnings in 1953.

A joint presidency is all about a great partnership – with each other, with the club and its members, and with businesses and the local community.

“It is a first for our club to have joint presidents and only the second time in our club history to have a female president,” exclaimed David.

“We are operating in a new world with new challenges so we believe that two heads will be better than one as we navigate the year together!”

Jo-Anne and David proudly state that “Our Rotary club has access to an enormously diverse pool of talent and expertise, which members give willingly in the cause of Rotary service, a service that will continue to focus on achieving positive outcomes for the community”.

Working together with the club, presidents Jo-Anne and David will help to motivate and inspire their members to embrace the theme of the new Rotary year which is “Serve to Change Lives”.

If you are interested in learning more about joining the Rotary Club of Wynnum and Manly please contact Membership Director Jo Soothill on 0400 844 471.

BLEEDING GUMS, NO BIG DEAL RIGHT?

FROM DENTAL ON CAMBRIDGE

Bleeding gums are most often indicative of a problem known as gingivitis, which is the inflammation of the gums. Although mild gingivitis is not overly problematic in many patients, this will progress to a condition known as periodontitis, which is gum and jaw disease and infection.

Periodontitis is a common oral health condition affecting 10 to 15% of the population. The biggest problem with periodontitis is that in many patients it develops and progresses without any or with minimal symptoms, often only bleeding gums and unusual breath odor. Unfortunately, untreated periodontitis will eventually lead to catastrophic loss of the bone supporting the tooth and eventual tooth loss. Periodontitis can easily be diagnosed by dentists looking for the condition via measuring gum pocket depths around teeth, observing bleeding and bone loss changes on x-ray.

So the next time you are experiencing bleeding gums, don't just assume it's because you haven't flossed in a while, or it's only gingivitis. Bring it up at your next routine examination and clean, or make an appointment especially to ensure that you're not developing periodontitis and looking at a future with potential tooth and bone loss.

If you have any concerns about your bleeding gums and want an expert opinion on how you can prevent this condition progressing, the team at Dental on Cambridge would be more than happy to assist you – after all preventative dentistry is our passion! BEAUTIFUL HAIR STYLING, WITHOUT THE HEAT

FROM BEAUTY ON BELMONT

Does your hair need to take a heat break?

As often as possible, in between washing and styling, take a break from using heat to style your hair, and allow your hair the opportunity to retain moisture and de-stress.

If you have to use heat to style your hair, heat protection products will help protect your hair, but the more breaks you have from heat styling, the healthier your hair will be long-term.

The haircare range we use and recommend here at beauty on Belmont is Pure Haircare. Their products are beautifully Australian made, vegan, gluten free, sulphate and paraben free. They are just so nourishing for your hair!

This styling primer is a spray that you can use before you Blowdry your hair, and before styling your hair (it is to only be used when your hair is wet) it is also anti-humidity (which means less frizz)!

We also love Pure's sacred mask. This is a treatment to use instead of your usual conditioner. Simple leave it in for a few minutes after shampooing your hair, keeping it off the scalp! This helps with heat protection and is great for putting moisture back into the hair.

Pictured right are hairstyles without heat. Simply braid or plait hair, then take the braid out the following day for beautiful, natural curls. You could also try a half-up/half-down style with natural curls, or even a top bun with natural curls.
