KALEIDOSCOPE: A GLITTERING DISPLAY OF BAYSIDE ART

Art feeds the soul, stirs the spirit and offers new perspectives. It's a form of inspired expression; every creation is unique to each artist.

Surrounded by natural beauty and a nurturing community, it's no wonder bayside artists are producing outstanding artworks, and this month, one deserving artist will win the major prize at the annual Kaleidoscope Art Exhibition.

Kaleidoscope exhibitors are members, tutors and emerging artists who are affiliated with the Wynnum Manly Arts Council. For many students, it's their first opportunity to be part of an exhibition.

Take a tour through the temporary gallery, and enjoy a superb showcase of local talent from 13 to 20 November, daily from 10am to 3pm at the Wynnum Manly Community Centre Gallery in Florence Street, Wynnum.

Perhaps you'll be inspired to create your own art?

Cheers to the folks in our community who keep the creative fires burning. We can't wait to see what you produce next.

BOOST FOR LOCAL TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY PLAYERS

CONTRIBUTED BY ROSS VASTA MP

The Commonwealth and Queensland Governments have reached an agreement to further target $70m from the State and Federal Governments' $600m support package to boost support for Queensland's major tourism and hospitality businesses who continue to face significant hardship.

The jointly-funded $70 million package includes:

- Tourism and Hospitality Sector Hardship Program – $40 million to provide a second round of grants to small, medium, and large employing tourism and hospitality businesses that received an initial grant from round one of the program.
- Iconic Tourism Grants – $30 million for grants of up to $4m to ensure that major tourism enterprises remain viable and are ready to scale up as visitation returns.

Federal Member for Bonner Ross Vasta MP said this funding agreement delivers positive outcomes for local businesses during a time when Queensland is closed off internationally and domestically from New South Wales and Victorian markets.

"Bonner is home to some of the sunshine state's most breathtaking tourism gems including Moreton Island which is home to Tangalooma Island Resort," Mr Vasta said.

"We are in an incredibly fortunate position here in Queensland to have the freedom to travel across the state and support our local tourism and hospitality businesses who have been working tirelessly during this time so we can continue making special memories with our friends, families and loved ones.

Ross Vasta MP visiting Tangalooma Island Resort.

"To secure our recovery, the Morrison Government remains committed to seeing the tourism and hospitality industry expand on a local level; bettering the economy and livelihoods."

Treasurer Josh Frydenberg said this package comes on top of the Morrison Government's more than $30.2 billion in direct economic support to Queensland households and businesses since the start of the pandemic.

HAVANA DREAMING: COCKTAILS FOR A CAUSE IS BACK!

Cocktails for a Cause – Manly 2021 (CFCmanly), is a collaboration between four bayside small business owners, with the aim of raising over $70,000 for bayside charity BABI Youth and Mental Health Services.

What started as a pre-Christmas lunch between friends has grown into an iconic community event, powered by people who share a vision: to celebrate friendships and community with a purpose.

Now in its fourth year and with more than $65,000 in funds raised, CFCmanly has become the largest charity event on Brisbane's bayside, with 1000 guests expected to attend this year. Ticket sales in the first three days totalled 500 tickets – a great early indication of support for this fantastic event.

CFCmanly directs 100% of profits to a different charity each year. In 2021 the charity unanimously voted as most worthy for support was BABI. The goal is to raise $70,000 to fund a new drop-in service for young people and their families at times of crisis. Families need immediate support, not waiting lists.

This year's fundraiser will see guests fulfil their dreams of travel with a Havana Dreaming themed lawn glowing with festoon lights, roaming entrainment, a vibrant live big band and aromas from a Cuban-inspired delicious food market (main meal) and of course, stunning cocktails!

2021 tickets are $110 and include:

- + stunning styled event under the stars
- + live big band
- + welcome cocktail
- + dinner served from Cuban-inspired food market stalls
- + prizes, raffles and more
- + plus a chance to win a VIP pre-party courtesy of Yachtshare

The event will be held on Saturday 13 November 2021 5:00 PM - 11:00 PM, Royal Queensland Yacht Squadron, 578 Royal Esplanade, Manly.

DENTAL ON CAMBRIDGE'S CHRISTMAS DONATION APPEAL

Dental on Cambridge is a family-owned practice on Cambridge Parade in Manly, and is always looking for ways to give back to the local community.

In the lead up to Christmas, Dental on Cambridge will be partnering with the local BABI Youth and Family Service in Wynnum, a non-profit organisation that provides integral services to the bayside community by responding to the needs of young people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

Christmas is often a difficult time of year for BABI's service users, so in preparation for the season of giving, Dental on Cambridge will be donating (as well as collecting) luxury toiletries during the month of November at their practice.

"The practice is often approached for donations by larger organisations across Brisbane, but we really want to be able to focus our charitable efforts within our local community," said Dental on Cambridge's Chantelle Ritchie.

"While any donation will be warmly accepted, we're asking the community to purchase an additional product that they would normally purchase for themselves, or items that they would purchase as a gift for a friend."

Examples of suitable products include body wash, nice soaps, shampoo and conditioner, deodorant/body spray, hand towels, soaps, body lotion, perfume, razors, shaving cream, hair styling products, face masks, nail clippers, and hair accessories like brushes, combs and hair ties.

Items for young men are often overlooked, so any male-specific items would be fantastic.

In December, the Dental on Cambridge team will collate the donated items together into hampers, along with their own donations of toothbrushes, flossers, and toothpaste for each hamper, wrapping, ribbons and cards to be able to prepare the gifts for delivery in time for Christmas.

Community members are welcome to include a personal note with their donations to be passed on to recipients.

Donations can be made at Dental on Cambridge 4/99 Cambridge Parade, Manly from Monday to Thursday, 8:30-6pm, and Fridays 8:30-5:00pm.

NEW CHAPTER FOR MANLY HARBOUR VILLAGE

FROM THE MANLY HARBOUR VILLAGE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

After 35 years of service, David Farley hands the baton to the new Manly Harbour Village Chamber of Commerce President, Peta Prestidge.

Over the last 40 years, the once sleepy seaside village of Manly has transformed from one of Brisbane's best kept secrets to a world-class harbourside precinct filled with thriving businesses and an enviable food and wine scene. David Farley, President of the Chamber for 35 years, has played a critical role in overseeing this transformation. But at the recent Annual General Meeting, David announced his retirement from the role as Chamber President. Taking over the role is Peta Prestidge, General Manager of The Consortium Group, who are behind some of the area's most popular restaurants including The Arsonist and Tide on the Jetty.

"At 78 years old, it's time to encourage younger hands to step up," said David. "Peta will do a great job and keep the momentum going."

Having been heavily involved in the growth of Manly for some time, Peta is the ideal candidate to fill what are undeniably big boots. She is a passionate advocate for the local area and its businesses.

"As soon as I reach Cambridge Parade, see the harbour and the hive of activity around the village I instantly relax and take a breath – I love everything about the look and feel of the place," Peta said.

"I don't think our community realises the range of tasks and activities the Chamber is involved with, and I'd love to see new and existing members get more involved - working together for the bigger picture I think is key."

Over the years the Chamber has progressed a wide range of initiatives, including annual community events such as Santa's Alley, the Billy Cart Derby and the much-loved Halloween Street Party. The Chamber is also responsible for facilitation of streetscaping and outdoor furniture upgrades, bringing craft and farmers markets to the area, and hosting regular social, information and educational events for its members. The Chamber now has a focus on place-making and destination marketing for the Manly Harbour Village and harbourside precinct. With the recent announcement of Manly as the 2032 Olympic sailing venue, there are many exciting new initiatives on the horizon.

The Chamber expresses its gratitude to David Farley for his invested time, knowledge and pure passion for the Manly Harbour Village business community, and warmly welcomes Peta Prestidge in her new role.

During the AGM, Juliann Star, owner of Ebb+Flow Boutique and a local trader for nearly 20 years, was also welcomed to the Chamber committee in the role of Trader Representative. The Chamber was also pleased to reinstate long-serving committee members Steve Rickertt, Peter Farley, Tammy Vitale, Ewan Blair, Sandy McDonald, and Lauren Micalc.

Local businesses, industry and advocacy professionals are invited to join the Chamber as members by visiting www.mhvcoc.com.au

JOAN PEASE'S COMMUNITY UPDATE, STATE MEMBER FOR LYTTON

ROCK THE BAY

The Bay was well and truly rocked in October! It was a great day out at Iona College, with perfect weather, a great selection of food and, of course, some fantastic artists. I would like to congratulate Tom Oliver and his team on a hugely successful event and say a big thank you to all the Bayside businesses and individuals who supported the day.

Don't miss out on Wynnum's Fringe Festival 16 – 21 November, I am thrilled to again support the Festival so don't miss out visit wynnumfringe.com to check out the program and mark it in your calendar!

SCHOOL FACILITY UPGRADES

There is so much work going on around our fabulous Bayside schools and it's not just in the classrooms! Six schools are earmarked for upgrades and in some instances brand new learning centres.

Wynnum State School students will enjoy more sun-safe play thanks to a $400 000 outdoor play area upgrade due for completion this month, while Wondall Heights State School has a budget of $300 000 to upgrade their Outside School Hours Care (OSHC).

Wynnum West State School completed the upgrade of their juniors' amenities building in September and Manly West State School is also on the home stretch of their male and female toilet block refurbishments.

Larger projects are underway for Darling Point Special School and Manly State School which include new learning centres.

Darling Point will see 28 new learning spaces, a manual arts room, multi-purpose room and student and staff amenities blocks are part of a $14 million build with work due to begin January 2022.

Manly State School's $10 million learning centre will include a three-story building with seven learning spaces, a music general learning area, and student and staff amenities with work projected to begin December 2021.

TRAINING AWARDS

The Bayside was well-represented at the 2021 Queensland Training Awards.

When refrigeration mechanic Lauren Campbell started her apprenticeship at AG Coombs, she was their first female apprentice. She was awarded the Harry Hauenschild Apprentice of the Year award for her work in promoting the industry to other young women.

Danielle Dixon, Executive Chef and Head of School of The Institut of Culinary Excellence, was awarded the VET Teacher or Trainer of the Year. Ms Dixon was recognised for her efforts in addressing mental health and wellness issues, as well as her work transitioning to online learning during 2020, saving countless apprenticeships and careers.

I send my biggest congratulations to both women – you should be very proud of yourselves.

BAYSIDE BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

This month Ebb and Flow has been recognized as Bayside Business of the Month. Owner Julieann Star has always been a passionate and dedicated local business owner that uplifts businesses around her and she is also a great supporter of our community. Congratulations to Julieann and Ebb and Flow!

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

I will be running a Christmas food drive again this year. Donations of non-perishable goods and hygiene items can be dropped into my office, with everything donated to Silky Oaks Children's Haven.

And following the success of our Go Local Grow Local draw in September, I will be running a Christmas hamper draw to encourage Bayside residents to do their Christmas shopping in the Bayside. Purchase anything from a small, local business to go into the draw to win a gorgeous Christmas hamper.

WYNNUM FRINGE FESTIVAL HITS THE BAYSIDE 16-21 NOVEMBER

Last month, my carpark was transformed into a stage of roaming performers, fresh popcorn and Wynnum Fringe supporters to launch the 2021 Wynnum Fringe Festival!

The Wynnum Fringe Festival is only in its 2nd year but is already hitting big notes with world class local performers set to perform right here on the Bayside this November. The Federal governments RISE Fund has granted $236,000 to the Wynnum Fringe Festival to deliver another stellar event helping local artists and small businesses thrive. I can't wait!

NEXT STEPS TO REOPEN THE WORLD...

The Morrison Government is setting out the framework for how international travel will look in the coming months with travel for Aussies to likely resume in November. Following the completion of home quarantine pilots in New South Wales and South Australia, it is anticipated that states and territories that are ready will roll out:

- Travel overseas without an exemption if you have both doses of a TGA-approved vaccine.
- Quarantine at home for seven days on your return.

We know it has been an extraordinarily difficult 18 months for Australians overseas trying to come home and for Australians with family and friends overseas. This will be another huge step towards reopening Australia to the world.

WELCOMING BONNER'S NEW AUSSIE CITIZENS!

This month we welcomed 60 new Australian citizens to Bonner from 20 different countries around the globe! It was wonderful to see their friends and family celebrating them on reaching this very special day. Congratulations to all our new local Australian citizens.

It was a privilege to welcome you to our multicultural and vibrant Bonner community.

MISS MAGGIE OF MANLY

POPPY'S GUIDE TO BEING A POLITE PET

BY DR NICKY THOMAS, WYNNUM MANLY VETERINARY HOSPITAL

Here are Poppy's tips for being on your best behaviour!

SHARE THE PATH.

We are so lucky to have such great places to walk where we live

– there is so much to see and smell outside! My people make sure that I stay to one side of the path to let fast doggos, runners, and bike riders get past and to give space to people going in the other direction.

DON'T GO OUT WITHOUT YOUR LEAD!

There are some great places to have a really big play without your lead on, but unless I'm in one of these designated "off-leash" areas, I have to keep my lead on. This not only keeps me safe from busy roads, but also stops me from damaging the homes of the feathery and fishy types who live around the bay.

DON'T LEAVE A MESS.

We all know that when you've got to go, you've got to go! Make sure that your people always have a supply of bags to clean up after you if nature calls while you're out and about.

DON'T RUN UP TO OTHER DOGS OR PEOPLE WITHOUT ASKING.

This follows from the last point – my mum won't let me go up to other dogs or run up to other people without asking. Some dogs are scared and anxious on their leads and don't always want someone running up and getting in their face. Get your people to ask other dogs' people if it's okay for you to say hello.

STAY HOME IF YOU'RE SICK!

Our people know all too well these days that you shouldn't go out if you're sick. Things like tummy upsets and coughs spread really easily between dogs so it's best to give the dog park a miss until you're feeling better.

A CHAT WITH WYNNUM MANLY LEAGUES CLUB CEO, CRAIG THOMAS

How long have the Community Grants been in operation at Wynnum Manly Leagues Club?

This year marks the 6th annual formal Community Grants released to the Wynnum Manly bayside area, which will also see a milestone achieved with over quarter of a million given back to organisations through this grants scheme. To date, since 1997, the club has been able to contribute over $17 million back into the community.

Why did you deem the three areas of support to be so important?

Our current community grant structure is made up of rugby league, non-profit organisations as our second component, and then the sponsorship arm for smaller items no greater than $500.

Rugby league is our business and passion. Being home to the Wynnum Manly Seagulls we support rugby league from grassroots right through to seniors. Our local schools invest a lot of time into teaching the skills of rugby league, and we decided this was an opportunity to support them with costs of uniforms, football equipment and the support of the Seagulls players in running sports days. The not-for-profit organisations are also an essential part of our bayside and give so much back into it. It's important to keep them viable in our community.

What are the notable outcomes this program achieved from the club's support?

It has allowed organisations to continue to support the bayside community through the valued services they provide. In rugby league, we have seen the growth of players from juniors through to the NRL.

How does the future look for Community Grants?

We will enhance our strong community linkages and seek to elevate the community partnership that we hold within the bayside area. Our commitment to funding and supporting the Seagulls, junior sport, and general community causes remain our key priorities.

WYNNUM MANLY BRIDGE CLUB SCORES NEW SYSTEM

BY JOHN AMPRIMO, SECRETARY

The Wynnum Manly Bridge Club has modernised its scoring system thanks to a grant from the Lord Mayor's Community Fund.

Previously, games were scored by players on a paper sheet that remained with the cards played. The cards, and the sheet, moved from table to table in a round-robin style tournament. Under COVID restrictions, the sheets posed a risk of transmitting the virus.

Fortunately, the club was given 12 second-hand scoring devices called Bridgemates, which remain on each table. This reduces the risk of transmission. Also, the devices automatically calculate the scores, removing the risk of players recording incorrect scores.

However, to make the Bridgemates operational, the club needed to purchase a laptop computer and a server that allows the devices to "talk" to the scoring program in the laptop. That program calculates the tournament winners, saving many hours of time once spent by club volunteers. The $800 grant was sufficient to buy the laptop and largely cover the cost of the server.

The club is grateful to Councillor Peter Cumming for his support with the grant. He has also been instrumental in the club securing a permanent playing venue at the Council's Municipal Hall in Bay Terrace.

Additionally, using a $2660 grant from the Wynnum Manly Leagues Club, the club recently bought 12 new Bridgemates, which will allow the club to run larger tournaments for its 80 members.

The club plays at the Municipal Hall Fridays (1pm to 5pm) and most Wednesdays (8:45am to 1:15pm). For more details, email WynnumManlyBridgeClubInc@hotmail.com.

HOW TO READ A POWER BILL TO CALCULATE SOLAR SAVINGS

FROM GOODHEW ELECTRICAL AND SOLAR

To determine what size solar system is right for you, you need to understand your electricity consumption. The higher your consumption, the bigger the solar system you'll need to get your bill down to zero, if not into credit. But how exactly do we work out the ideal size system for you?

FIRSTLY, YOU NEED TO UNDERSTAND HOW TO READ YOUR ELECTRICITY BILL.

Most households will have at least two tariffs. The main tariff with the highest usage will be your normal power that is on 24/7; this is charged at a higher rate than the other tariffs. This is the most important factor in determining how much power you use versus how much you sell back to the grid.

This is the most important reading because this is the usage that will be directly impacted by your solar system and will determine how much power you use versus how much you sell back into the grid.

One charge on every energy bill in addition to tariffs is a supply charge. This charge is incurred every day regardless of power consumption. If you want to completely wipe out your power bill, you not only have to cover the cost of the power you consume, but you also need to sell enough electricity back to the grid each day to cover the cost of the supply charge.

If you would like help working out the perfect size system for your household, give Goodhew Electrical and Solar a call today and have a chat to one of our solar experts.

WE SERVICE & REPAIR ALL SOLAR SYSTEMS & OFFER ANNUAL MAINTENANCE PACKAGES

If you haven't thought about your solar panels since they've been installed – you're not alone! Once solar panels are installed they are often out of sight out of mind. Lets discuss the importance of solar maintenance.

It may not be until you notice a jump in your energy bills that you give your solar system much consideration. If there hasn't been a run of grey, gloomy, dark days and your energy output is continuing to decline – then your solar panels are likely in need of some well overdue maintenance!

RESIDENTIAL SOLAR

Over the years we have learnt to only install the very best. LONGi Solar is a world leading manufacturer of high efficiency mono-crystalline solar cells and modules. The Company was established in 2000 and is today the largest supplier of mono-crystalline products in the world. Growatt ranks as the world's number 1 biggest seller of Residential solar inverters. Giving 10 years warranty on their inverters.

SOLAR HOT WATER PACKAGE

Evacuated tube technology, when compared to more traditional at plate collectors, there are several advantages offered by evacuated tube collectors:

- Up to 163% more efficient in heat transfer as demonstrated in Australian conditions
- Greater durability; and yet, should a tube break, it can be replaced easily and very affordably
- Excellent performance in overcast conditions

OFF-GRID

With the technology available today for solar systems, battery inverters and chargers, anyone can produce their own electricity. You could have a fully off grid system which would mean you never have to rely on the utility network to generate power for your home.

LOCAL FIRM SENDS 800KG MEDI-AID PACKAGE TO CUBA

Recently the owner of Tingalpa-based engineering company Prior Industries Australia Pty Ltd and Chair of the Australia-Cuba Business Council, Kim Prior, sent over $75,000 worth of medical aid to the island nation of Cuba in response to the humanitarian crisis caused by COVID-19.

The 800Kg aid package consisted of some 26,000 needles, basic medical supplies including wound dressings, bandages and vitamins particularly perinatal vitamins and supplements for children impacted as a result of shortages that have swept the country in the last 12 months.

According to Australia-Cuba Business Council Chair Kim Prior, "this is an important act of good will by Australians to the Cuban plight as Cuba has done much to assist other countries throughout the pandemic."

The small island nation has shown stunning international goodwill and resilience during the pandemic, while itself suffering severe economic hardship as a result of the ongoing pandemic and continuing sanctions from the United States.

The country dispatched some 2000 doctors and nurses worldwide last year to assist with the pandemic and has developed three COVID-19 vaccines – Abdala, Soberana 02 and Soberana Plus – to combat the virus.

Cuba itself closed its international borders to all non-residents in March 2020 and has since maintained one of the tightest lockdowns in the world to prevent the spread of the virus.

While those restrictions helped to ease the spread during the first wave the measures have crippled the country economically with an estimated loss of $30 billion to the gross domestic product last year.

The restrictions have also failed to contain the more contagious Delta variant, with nearly half a million cases occurring since June this year.

The staggering increase in numbers has put immense strain on Cuba's hospital system that, while well-staffed, has had difficulty obtaining the medical resources needed to meet such a catastrophic increase in numbers.

"Whilst having world's best doctors in place is exceptional and we are fortunate in Cuba to have them," says Cuba's Ambassador Ariel Lorenzo. "The shortages make the jobs of those doctors extremely difficult."

"Putting together an aid package for Cuba was an easy decision to make not only because of the economic predicament of the country but also as an act of goodwill for a country that did much to help other, less well-resourced countries," said Kim Prior.

The Australia-Cuba Business Council is a non-partisan, not-for-profit member organisation established to work on behalf of its members to assist in the creation of successful partnerships between Australia and Cuba.

FATHER WINS APPLICATION AGAINST ANTI-VAXXER MUM

CONTRIBUTED BY DBL SOLICITORS

It was only a matter of time post the COVID-19 era that the issue of vaccinations would be before the Family Court.

In the recent case of Makinen & Taube [2021] FCCA 1878, the Court heard a father's application to have sole parental responsibility for decisions regarding immunisations and vaccinations for the parties' two children aged 12 and eight. The mother opposed any vaccination and relied on literature which reported on the harm that vaccinations can bring to children.

The father won his application with the Court ruling that the mother's opposition to vaccination was based on genuine but unreasonably held beliefs.

The Judge in this case outlined the differing attitudes between the mother and the father which rendered it highly improbable they could, after a consultation process, reach a joint decision about vaccines. For that reason, the Judge believed that if no order were made specific to parental responsibility concerning vaccinations, by default, the children would not be vaccinated against any disease.

Orders were made for the father to have sole parental responsibility regarding decisions concerning vaccinations in accordance with the national immunisation program or as recommended by the children's GP.

Ultimately, in any parenting decision, the primary consideration is the child's best interests. The Court will always determine each matter on its own facts.

If you need any advice or assistance with your parenting matter, contact DBL Solicitors.

LOTA STATE SCHOOL SCIENCE FAIR ENGAGES STUDENTS

FROM LOTA STATE SCHOOL

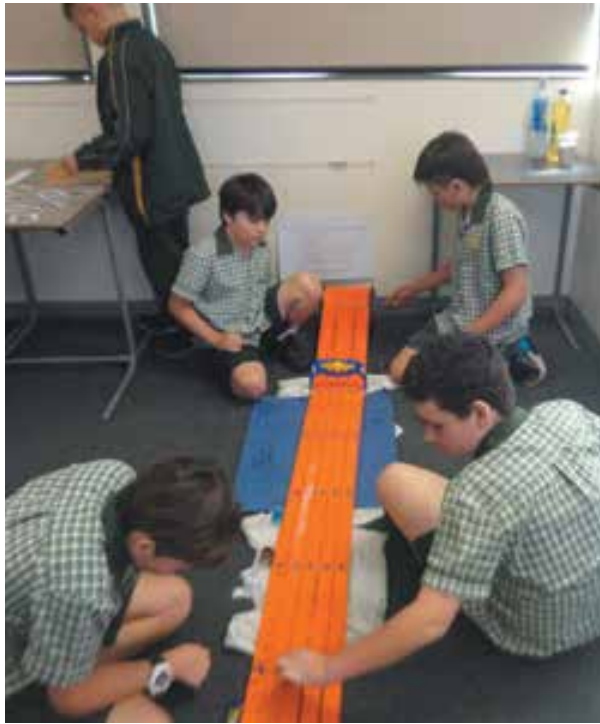

Lota State School recently held its inaugural Science Fair, where each class from Prep to Year 6 visited the fair and took part in a huge variety of activities.

There were many hands-on activities for the children to interact with, including creating a class science sculpture from 24 used photocopier boxes, which highlighted reuse and recycle concepts.

Life cycles were examined, and an ageing app was used to give the children a glimpse of what they may look like when they are much, much older. This caused much laughter amongst the children, particularly the boys who ended up bald or with moustaches.

The children's brains were confused when viewing optical illusions, coins were spun, and dominoes were lined up for a push and pull activity. Cars were raced down various tracks and the mealworms entertained everyone.

The students are looking forward to the next Science Fair in 2022.

CREATING A DEMENTIA-FRIENDLY BRISBANE BY 2032

At a recent event, Dementia Australia acknowledged a host of organisations that are working together to make Brisbane a dementia-friendly city in the lead up to the Brisbane 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

Brisbane City Council, Queensland Art Gallery and Gallery of Modern Art (QAGOMA), University of Queensland's Healthy Living Centre and Iona College have all committed to driving this important initiative.

Dementia Australia CEO, Maree McCabe, said everyone involved was to be commended for their leadership in working towards a dementia-friendly city and for the visionary commitment to creating a dementia-friendly Brisbane 2032.

"It is alliances like the Brisbane South-East Dementia Alliance that are the catalysts for change," Ms McCabe said.

The Alliance, led by dementia advocates John Quinn and Glenys Petrie, has been working with Brisbane City Council and the other organisations over the past few years to inspire them to commit to becoming more dementia-friendly and inclusive of people living with dementia, their families and carers.

Mr Quinn, who is living with dementia, said, "It has been a privilege to work so closely with all these organisations and I am so excited to see how this will evolve as we all work together towards Brisbane 2032".

He continued, "I thank the federal government for continuing to fund the Dementia-Friendly Communities program that has enabled our Alliance to engage across so many sectors to bring about this milestone achievement today".

"With 70% or more of people with dementia living in the community it is our responsibility to be inclusive of people with dementia, to value their contributions and to respect their rights to access the services and activities we all expect to enjoy," Ms McCabe said.

This commitment has the power to change the way we think about dementia and enable and empower people to live well with dementia.

LOCAL POETRY
GROWING OLD

BY GEOFF SMILEY

Sometimes polio returns
after 50 years.
Old hurts do too.
They threaten,
those haunting facts of history;
they gather at the walls,
come howling at the gate.
Known pathogens of memory rebound and challenge, now immunity and hope
are on the wane.
These demons of despair, demanding
to be conquered once again.

"In aging we become less competent and more vulnerable. Those of us who suffered early hurt and learned to cope, can find our defences challenged."

ESSENTIAL SERVICE PROVIDES CARE TO OUR COMMUNITY

CONTRIBUTED BY MEALS ON WHEELS, WYNNUM MANLY DISTRICT

Meals on Wheels has had a place in the hearts and homes of Queenslanders' homes for more than 60 years. Wynnum Manly District Meals on Wheels is no different, having performed the same in our community for over 54 years.

Every day a friendly smile, a chat about the weather, a nutritious meal and knowing someone will drop by to say hello, changes the lives of so many Queenslanders.

"Meals on Wheels is a compassionate connector of people that delivers care and empathy with every one of our nutritionally balanced meals, making recipients and their families feel safe, supported and a member of the wider community," says Wynnum Manly District Meals on Wheels President, Ken Edwards OAM.

"We nourish bodies and hearts, which grow better communities, and as our volunteers will tell you, reaching out and making a difference in somebody's day, makes their day."

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Meals on Wheels underwent multiple changes in operations with services rapidly adapting to the government's new restrictions while managing an increase in demand as an essential service, operating in a COVID-safe manner.

"Staff and volunteers have recognised the urgent need to protect themselves, protect our clients, protect their families and friends by having the vaccination as an urgent and high priority," said Mr Edwards.

Mr Edwards said the majority of staff and volunteers at Wynnum Manly District Meals on Wheels have now received at least one vaccination and many, the two required.

More than just a meal

WHITING IS THE CATCH OF THE MONTH FOR NOVEMBER

BY SPERO KARTANOS

November is a good month for many reasons: Christmas is around the corner and the Melbourne Cup is on (my tip is The Chosen One) and the whiting are in good numbers in the bay.

So, when the weather is good there is no better excuse to go out and catch some nice Moreton Bay whiting fillets for the family, and by all accounts, most families enjoy the sweet tasting fillets. Eat them tempura style, grilled in a nice pasta linguini, or any way you like to cook these lovely fish. My favourite has to be light Japanese tempura batter and shoestring chips, all cooked in light olive oil with home-made chilli jam and aioli, but for the family to be happy you must learn to fillet so there are no bones left.

Whiting are really easy to catch and they tend to be in the same areas each year – in actual fact I think there's more these days than in the olden days! Find them around the Sand Hills and on the western side of Moreton Island, Fisherman's Gutter, and all the gutters throughout the Rous Channel area, Chain Banks, and all the surrounding sandbanks.

Also check out the Amity Banks shallows in Horseshoe Bay, and south to Pelican Bank, the northern side of the Brisbane River, Sandgate, Redcliffe, Bribie, and all the way to the 'pin.

In the summer months, I find the whiting are up in the shallow banks throughout the bay in 4 to 6 ft of depth, and a sign I always look for is feeding dugongs – nine times out of 10 the whiting follow the herds to eat whatever the dugongs dig up eating the sea grass.

I find them on the bite better when there is a good run in the tide, drifting with the good old faithful paternoster rig. Anchored up I do like the running sinker rig, especially in the fast-running currents down the 'pin and the rivers, but up in the bay paternoster is the way to go.

Bait is simple, and the best by far is live blood worms, but frozen beach worms, strips of squid, peeled prawns and pipis and live yabbies should all catch you a bucket of whiting.

As for rods and reels (especially for the young), I recommend ultralight rods, and the 1000 size reels are very good. Like most older fisherman, I remember hand line was all that was once used, which was a bit of a pain on a windy day if three or four people had hand lines going all over the place.

I always used long shank hooks, all brown in the stone age, and then the red long shanks were introduced, which made sense seeing we mostly used red blood worms or cured red beach worms. But I have to say I was put onto the black magic circle-type 1.0 whiting hooks and can't believe how good they are, the only trouble is my little fat fingers sometimes find it hard to put the bait on, so every now and then I revert back to the red long shank.

November is hit and miss with some glassy conditions or howling winds, so wait for the good and safe days to go get a bucket of whiting, the kids love it!

One last thing on the whiting fishing: I know it's easier to scale by dragging them in a net behind a boat but it really does soften the flesh; I think scaling by hand gives you firmer fillets.

'Til next month good fishing.

GROUNDED VESSEL SPARKS STORMY OVERNIGHT RESCUE

CONTRIBUTED BY BRISBANE COAST GUARD

Storms were brewing late one night when the Coast Guard emergency phone rang. A 10-metre cruiser with engine troubles had run aground on Moreton Island south of Tangalooma and was in danger of being battered apart.

Skipper Allan Tennent called in a boat crew, and shortly after midnight Brisbane Coast Guard's large command vessel CG29 left harbour. After a lumpy crossing to Tangalooma, the crew quickly located the troubled boat but were now faced with the challenge of safely recovering the boat and its occupants in the middle of blustery storm cells.

"We deployed our tender to drag a tow rope across, but with breaking seas and a strong current, it took some time to get the line in place and secured," Allan explained. "The cruiser only had small deck cleats to secure the line to, so we had to use gentle towing pressure and rocking from the swells to ease it free."

Once the vessel was under tow, there were still challenges for the crew. Thirty-knot rain squalls buffeted both vessels, causing a tow line to snap. A new line held for the rest of the six-hour tow back to Manly. With day breaking, the tired crew were able to deliver the disabled vessel and its relieved passengers to safe ground.

"The owner had recently purchased the boat, and was sailing on a shake-out trip even though the forecasts were poor," Allan added. "While we're always available to help people in trouble, if the weather conditions are marginal we urge people to reconsider their trips."

After a fierce battle to connect a tow rope, a moment to relax for crew Kerri Edwards. Photo: Ian Williams, Brisbane Coast Guard.

- ¼ cup of chopped or sliced almonds

- 2 tsp mustard
- 1 tsp white vinegar
- 1 tbsp olive oil
- 2 tbsp fresh chopped chives and parsley

In a large bowl, assemble all the salad ingredients.

VALE ANGELO VASTA Q.C.

BY SAL VASTA

Vale Angelo Vasta Q.C. At 80-years-of-age, he lived a full life dedicated both to his career and his family.

He was the son of a Sicilian migrant who came to the North Queensland cane fields in 1922 in the hope of a better future for his family. He was a role model for his family and others around him.

He taught us the value of service to the public, rather than service to one's self, and he illustrated this perfectly during his distinguished legal career. Angelo's unwavering passion to keep giving back to the community didn't stop once he left the Supreme Court bench.

He threw himself into doing work for the less privileged, especially for the Aboriginal Legal Service, where he was a powerful advocate for indigenous Australians.

Angelo was known by all to be an exceptional advocate, with a sense of fairness.

He undoubtedly made an impact in the courtroom. He was a shrewd advocate and highly respected by his peers. Both as a Judge and as a Barrister, he savoured justice – whether that was in The High Court of Australia or the smallest tribunal in Queensland.

Whilst known by many for his courage and resilience, Angelo was also a man of great faith, and the love of his family was second only to his love of God.

Angelo Vasta leaves a profound and unique legacy and his contribution to the law in Queensland will live on.

ROSIES' PATRONS AND PAINTING PROVES A HUGE HIT!

BY MADDIE BATCH

I had some painting kits laying around home that weren't being used so I thought it'd be fun to take them to Outreach.

The patrons got right to it and it was amazing to see some beautiful masterpieces take shape – sunflowers, city landscapes and an elephant in the making.

The painting kits were a huge hit with the kids as well, although I think they got more paint on themselves and the table than on the canvases!

At one point, one of the kids was chasing their brother around with paint on a paintbrush, with squeals of joy from both the chaser and the chasee!

We had paint on our hands by the end of it, some on our clothes and even in our hair too (whoops!) but it was clear that fun was had by all involved.

Our volunteers are always looking for ways to bring joy and engage with our patrons, whether it's a painting kit or a game of soccer – you never know what a small act of kindness could mean to someone in need. PAUSE AND PAY TRIBUTE FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY

FROM WYNNUM RSL

November 11th, 1918 saw the end of four years of conflict. It was the end of World War 1.

The shadow cast over the allied forces would stand for decades to come. Over 60,000 Australians lost their lives during this battle. More than 100 years have since passed, yet their legacy burns on.

Remembrance Day gives Australians an opportunity to pause and pay tribute to the countless men and women who have served and are currently serving, and to those who sacrificed all for their country.

At 11.00am, we ask that you observe one minute's silence, to reflect on the comradery, bravery and mateship demonstrated by our troops.

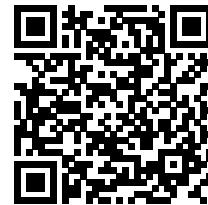

The Wynnum RSL Club will be holding a service and wreath laying ceremony on Thursday 11th November in the Pandanus Room; we ask that you arrive at 10.30am for a 10.45am start.

The red poppy is a symbol of remembrance, which grew in abundance in the fields of Gallipoli. In the wake of brutality and loss, blossomed the small red flower; a symbol now synonymous with our fallen troops, from the World Wars to Peace Keeping missions. A sign, that we will not forget them.

If you're unable to join us at the service, please look at purchasing a poppy. Our Women's Auxiliary will be selling poppies and other merchandise outside Coles Wynnum Central on 4th, 5th and 6th of November, merchandise will also be available for purchase from the club reception.

If you would like to lay a wreath, please email events@wynnumrsl.com.au for your inclusion in our ceremony.

We Will Remember Them.

ROTARY SANTAS GET READY FOR CHRISTMAS ROOFTOPS

The Rotary Club of Wynnum and Manly have been giving their iconic wooden cut-out Santas a fresh coat of paint just in time for Christmas.

For more than 20 years these Rotary Santas have graced the roofs of businesses in the Wynnum and Manly community, and continue to serve as a major fundraiser in support of local projects including the popular Australia Day BBQ and Family Fun Day.

Family members young and old look forward to seeing the first Santas go up in December.

Local resident Tony Fox says, "My grandchildren are delighted when they see the Santas being installed each year. My family think they add to the spirit of Christmas".

Would you like to support Rotary? The cost to a business is $80. Santas are installed in early December and are taken down in mid-January. For all Santa enquiries please email: secretarywmrotary@gmail.com.

WHAT IS ROOT CANAL OR ENDODONTIC TREATMENT?

FROM DENTAL ON CAMBRIDGE

Teeth are made up of two anatomical parts: the crown and the root. The crown of a tooth is the top part that is exposed and visible above the gum (gingiva). It is covered with enamel, which protects the underlying dentine. The root of a tooth descends below the gum line, into the jawbone, anchoring the tooth in the mouth. Different types of teeth have a different number of roots and root formations.

Typically, incisors will have one root whereas molars may have three or four. Teeth are vital organs of the body. The living tissue in the centre of the crown is called the pulp which is enriched with nerves and blood vessels and this is where the tooth gets its nutrients to remain healthy.

When the nerve degenerates or is affected by bacteria your dentist may recommend removing the affected nerve and blood vessels to prevent further pain and damage to the bone underneath the tooth. This procedure is known as root canal treatment and is often recommended to attempt to save teeth from further damage or extraction.

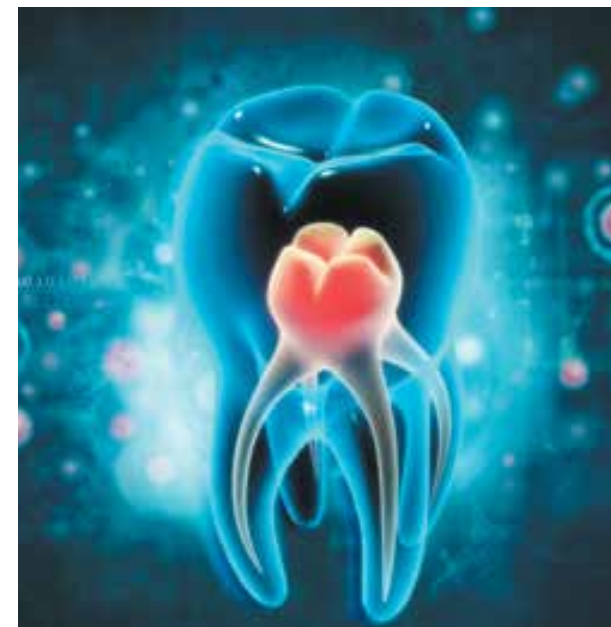

The procedure consists mainly of removing the affected pulp of the tooth as well as cleaning out any bacteria on the inside of the tooth then covering it with a protective seal. In essence, the root canal-treated seeks to preserve the healthy parts of the tooth. By removing the infected regions, it can save the original tooth, hence avoiding extraction and permanent tooth loss.

Often root canal-treated teeth, especially back chewing teeth, also require a crown to be placed over the tooth to enhance the strength and longevity of the tooth. In fact, root canal-treated teeth that are protected with a crown have a 6 x longer lifespan than root canal-treated teeth that do not have a crown.¹

A dental crown is a custom-made, permanent restoration. Before insertion, a dental crown looks like a hollow, tooth-shaped 'cap' which is cemented onto an existing natural tooth (or onto a dental implant). Dental crowns are made out of ceramic (porcelain) which is a very strong and aesthetic material. They are seamlessly matched to the shape and colour of your existing teeth. Dental crowns will look, function and feel just like a natural tooth.

The best way to care for your teeth before or after root canal treatment is to ensure that you carefully schedule and keep your six monthly routine examinations and cleans with your dentist to keep your teeth for the long term! Call us now on 3348 6661 or book online www.dentaloncambridge.com
